SILVER STAR MEDAL

In 1932 the Army Silver Citation Star was placed on a bronze pendant and a ribbon of its own was designed, instead of being placed on a campaign medal ribbon. Silver Star Medal, by Act of Congress December 15, 1942, is awarded for "each citation of any person for gallantry in action while serving in any capacity with the Army . . . not warranting the award of a medal of honor or distinguished service cross."

Silver Star Medal was made Navy decoration August 7, 1942, by Act of Congress.
